

Bradford Music Club 14 December 2022 AGM Chairpersons Report

This has been a good year in the sense that we have been back to live performances at the Quaker Meeting House, after a couple of years on Zoom during the Covid 19 restrictions. This last month we had a printed programme the first in many years

I have decided at last to step down now as Chairperson. Fortunately, other people are coming forward to organise the Club. This includes David Bridgewater and Madeleine Watson, and other people.

This is very good news. The opportunity to perform in a supportive atmosphere will still be available at the Rawdon Quaker Meeting House. I will continue to come as an audience member and would like to perform occasionally

I would like to thank everyone involved in keeping the Club running `on a shoestring` particularly Don Edbury, who has `opened` the Meeting House each month, and Aisha Walker who has run the website and sent out emails.

We have also held committee meetings every 3 months on Zoom. This has involved Ian Baxter, Richard White, Aisha Walker, and I deciding on who has responsibility for organising or compering the Club each month.

New people have also started to come as audience and performers. They each have different connections, with future possibilities for audience or performing at the Club

It will be our 20 Anniversary next year, and therefore an opportunity for a splendid celebration. I wish the new Committee well in its future development. Many thanks.
